THE NEW PLAY The "Hurry Up" New Yorker "Rich Mr. Hoggenheimer" Will Make You Spend That Saved-Up Laugh.

repeated the success he made in "The Girl from Kay's." Mr. Owen Hall, who invented "Piggy," is probably the only person in the world who wouldn't laugh at "The Rich Mr. Hoggenhelmer." If you've saved up a snur augh, don't take it to Wallack's unices you're willing to spend it. Hossonilotaiol out everything but that. He doesn't mind being laughed at. has come back with both a famile and a success on his bands. When sailed for these shores on "William Katser's Grocery" he seemed in some inger of losing his humor overboard. It didn't seem strong enough for an ocean yage in the first act, but it landed ate and spluttering in the second. hom he fondly supposed he had left chind, and, like a dutiful husband, he rote her a nice, long cable. But when ne found that he had dashed off $14.73 orth of affection, he remarked, upon ecovering from the shock, "Maybe I the single word "Arrived,"

He hesitated, however, over careful husband he reflected: "It sounds good, but it sounds a little susous," So it went the way of the other high-priced words. Bernard's enough to make a telegraph operator laugh and telegraph operators, if you've noticed, never laugh during bustness hours. s anything that ever happened in Hooken. After "Piggy" has told the inof his trunks to the inspectors and fallen a victim He is flattered whom Sam Bernard as the Rich Mr. Hog-

A lady wants you to take but he gives the horse a lesson in balking when reminded that e is only a cabman. Policemen drive him on the box under threat of arrest fe's frunks are piled on until he can't see the horse. Ordered to rive to Brooklyn, he asks, "What street is it on?" Brooklynites thirsting for Hoggenheimer as a Cabby.

Miss Georgia Caine rides a hobby horse with considerable daring while she ags "This World Is a Toy Shop," and Miss Marion Garson, as the shopgirl who allowed to have the rich Hoggenhehrer's son after all, shares vocal honors with the blond and statuesque Kathryn Hutchinson.

Ben Teal has done wonders with a chorus that dances even better than it sings. That Scotch ballet deserves a Carnegie library all to itself. CHARLES DARNTON.

HEALTH AND BEAUTY.

By Margaret Hubbard Ayer.

hightener for the hair, but, as you want to give the hair a more lively A Lip-Contracter.

your face with cream. Where the oill- macerate for five hours, then strain police, where even skilful disguise has ness of the skin is excessive the follow- through checsecloth. Apply to the lips been penetrated by the keen eyes of a ing lotion, applied two or three times when necessary.

rightening the Hair.

Evaluation compound tineture of layender, to choose the route most favorable to Ennie. Salts of tartar is a good 8 drops; distilled water, 1 ounce. his plans and 60.

genhelmer.

revenge may be interested to know that the book and lyrics of the place were written by Harry B. Smith. When

"Piggy" picks up the reins, the horse walks off by itself and leaves him stranded on the cab.

those trunks are screamingly funny. He slips, sildes and scrambles among them in a way that would probably make the horse laugh if it didn't have its back turned. Without Bernard, "The Rich Mr. Hoggenhemer" wouldn't be exactly side-splitting. It is Bernard, not the plece, that is funny. Now and then, when "Piggy" talks of his son, there are almost serious moments, but Berents as a serious actor are on a par

Ludwig Englander has provided a dancers and they lose half their charm

with his talents as a singer.

size. That always increases any de-R.—The oily skin is to be rubbed formity: Melt an ounce; of any of the also.

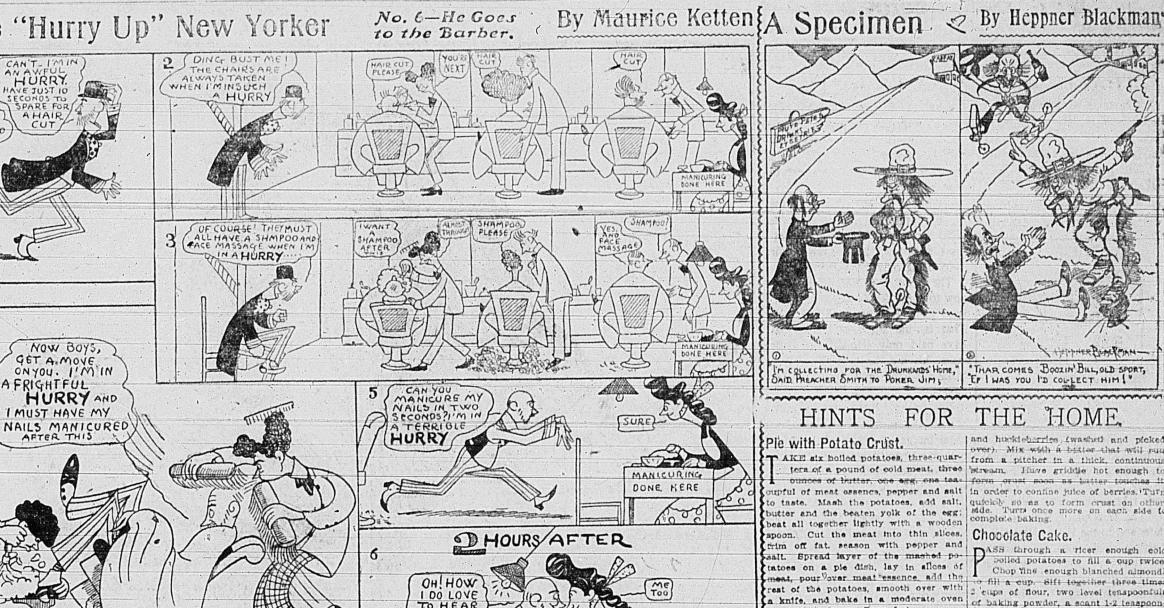

with the lotion for which I give cold creams, add one gram each of pul
One reads of the many attempted

May Manton's Daily Fashions

Pattern No. 5498 is cut in sizes for a 52, 34, 35, 38, 40 and 42 inch bust messure. Call or send by mail to THE EVENING WORLD MAY MAN-TON FASHION BUREAU, No. 21 West Twenty-third street, New York. Send ten cents in coin or stamps for each pattern ordered. IMPORTANT-Write your name and address plainly, and always specify sise wanted.

FOR THE HOME.

Ple with Potato Crust.

ounces of Buttar, one agg, one teas form or cupful of meat essence, pepper and salt in order to confine buce of berries Turn to taste. Mash the potatoes, add salt, quickly so as to form crust on other butter and the beaten yolk of the egg; idde. Turn once more on each side to complete baking. spoon. Cut the meat into thin slices. Chocolate Cake. salt. Spread layer of the mashed potatoes on a ple dish, lay in affices of neat, pour over meat tessence, add the rest of the potatoes, smooth over with 2 cups of flour, two level tenspoonfuls a knife, and bake in a moderate oven for half an hour. Serve hot.

Berry Griddle Cakes.

NE-HALF pint of huckleberries, one and a half pints flour, one teaspoon salt, one tablespoon brown sugar, teaspoons baking powder, two eggs, one pint mak. Sat together flour, sugar, alt and powder; add beaten eggs, milk

TAKE six boiled potatoes, three-quar- from a pitcher in a thick, continuous tera of a pound of cold meat, three stream. Have griddle hot enough to boiled potatoes to fill a oup twice, Chop line enough blanched almonds fill a cup. Sift together three times of baking powder, a scant 1-2 teaspoonof baking powder, a scant 1-2 teaspeonful of sait, 1 cinnamon and 1-2 teaspoonful of cloves. Cream 1 cup of butter and gradually beet in 2 cups of sugar and 1 cup of swedt, grated chocolate. Then add the beaten yolks of 4 eggs, 3-4 cup of milk, that potato, flour mixture, almonds, and last, the beaten whites, dry. Bake inf quite a large tube pan, or two smaller ones, in moderate oven, about 45 mins utes.

THE SMOKE EATER

Romance of the N. Y. Fire Dept.

By Seward W. Hopkins, Author of "Night Stick and Nozzle."

nard always gives them a funny turn synopsis of preceding Chapters. just in time to save himself. His talnumber of pretty songs, among them "The Homesick Yankee," which runs to patitotic medley and has a George M. Cohan swing. "Don't You Want to Cohan swing. "Don't You Want to Buy a Paper?" is worth more than a penny, and Paul West has used another clever idea in "Poker Love." But Miss Flossle Hope and Miss Carrie Bowmen have voices that should go into the dis-card. They are remarkably elever

CHAPTER XII. Ballender Has Proof.

daily, is excellent: Sulphate of zinc, 2 such profusion that all one need do is ppearance, try rinsing it in half water and do not bite your lips or show apparently none left.

Any self-consciousness over their published each morning and evening

A formula, just as you would run verized tanein and alkanet chips; let flights folled by the activity of the Y EW and pretty voice of another. It will seem impos-corset covers sible to escape. Corset covers sible to escape.

Yet, in the same papers one reads of create their own Yet, in the same papers one reads of demand. This one is as persons well known wandering away, persons well known wandering away. simple as it is charming new York secretly, and all trace being tott little labor in the make. As a matter of fact both are true.

Engine Co. Nº 28-

Men in top row, left to right: H. Kuhn, Fred Proffe, E. A. Quinn, John A. Luddy, William & Ferry. Dunn. Lower row, left to right: Engineer Joseph Williams, Captain William B. Kirchner and Lieutenant Michael J. Niven.

step? R. T. Indeed, you would be would suske you miserably unhappy, and you would

5...... he was first in the hospital and her amid sweater a trim and tallor-made appearance swell New York sloop. I is shapely and neat. Consider the back, for instance. The lower porthe back and in addition are closed with buttons R. F. and buttonholes that are not only next but de-Wait a year, and if you still feel the cidedly prnamental. need not speak of the eleeves, which are in the shape, nor of the wool used, which is golf yarn. This yarn is cather heav fer than knitting worsted, but has all Ms splendid Destroyed with Bear Brand Yarna. Pyramid Sweater.

I will mail full directions for making this pattern to any of my readers who are interested. There will be no charge for sending them. Kindly address Laura La Rue, Knitting Editor, Evening World, P. O. Box 1484, N. Y. City.

If am inclined to the conducting tring in the world. But it a wife's love is the most enduring tring in the world. But it a wife's love is the most enduring tring in the world. But it a wife's love is the most enduring tring in the world. But it an years my senior. Do you think that their love is essentially more unselfish. Self-interest and self-preservation unconsciously guarantee the permanency of the wife's affection. Her social position and support largely depend on her husband, whereas he assumes from the beginning a port largely depend on her husband, whereas he assumes from the beginning a deliberate burden and curries it more or less cheerfully all his life. Women love deliberate burden and curries it more or less cheerfully all his life. Women love her very much nothing I can say will influence you.

If a wife's love is the most enduring tring in the world. But it is difference in age too great? She shys she loves me very mach, and wd are thinking of being married.

F. C. W. S.

Yes. I do. She will be an old woman when you are middle-aged. But if you him as he detests steady work. Do you love her very much nothing I can say will influence you.

The Detector of the beginning a married are thinking of being married.

But I am afraid to trust myself is man, and am about to be engaged.

But I am afraid to trust myself is man, and am about to be engaged.

F. C. W. S.

Yes. I do. She will be an old woman when you are middle-aged. But if you him as he detests steady work. Do you will influence you.

R. T.

Indeed, you would be taking a dangerous at the port of the wife's affection.

If a wife's love is the most considered are thinking of being married.

The Detector of the wife's affection are thinking of being married.

The Detector of the wife's affection are thinking of being married.

The detector of the wife's affection are thinking of being married.

The Detector of the wife's affection are thinking of being married.

The detector of the wife's affection are thinking of being married.

The detector of

He Flirted in the Street. AM a young lady of nearly seventeen with another girl. On being questioned and am keeping company with a about this he refused to say anything. Dear Betty:

older than support, I am considered She Lobes an Actor. One day while out walking he firted Dear Betty: sober roung men about two years Dear Betty, as I love him very dearly, man. He is an actor by profession, marry hir